KANISHKA Kitchen

ATUL KOCHHAR'S KANISHKA KITCHEN

Welcome to my Kitchen, inspired by India and in particular the North East region, where India touches China, grows some of the best tea in India in Assam, and the blend of Indian spices mingle perfectly with dumplings, noodles and some other of my favourite things, which I hope you will also enjoy discovering.

You'll find chopsticks, nestled amongst more traditional Indian dishes, curries and beautifully spiced specialities.

Come on a journey with me.

KANISHKA BREAD

I am talking some serious dough here... We are famous for our bread, using traditional techniques and recipes. We love to take traditional breads from antiquity and mix them with new ingredients... India has always been influenced by travellers... along the silk and spice routes... and I am continuing this tradition today.

Enjoy!
